

MANHATTAN

34

In 1920, America introduced Prohibition. The sale and production of alcohol was made illegal and the liquor trade driven underground.

As a result, "The Speakeasy" was born... In December 1933 prohibition was overturned. With the cocktail now a mainstay in everyday life, from 1934 onwards, a new era of drinking is born...

All boilermakers are served as pints paired with one measure of Bourbon, unless otherwise stated.

Boilermakers can be drunk in a number of ways; the Bourbon can be drunk in a single gulp, then chased by the beer, otherwise you can drop it into your pint glass, which is known as a depth charge, and finally you can pour the whiskey into your pint and stirred if desired.

Whatever you choose is up to you.

BARTENDERS PICKS

TITO'S - An American original craft vodka made in an old - fashioned pot still which requires more skill and the results are worth it.

APPLETON ESTATE RESERVE - A full bodied, medium sweet rum with fruity aroma's and a rich taste. Signature serve: Appleton Mia Tai.

YAMAZAKI 12YR - Japanese single malt with its signature multi layered taste is highly praised by whisky connoisseurs around the world and won Jim Murry's best whisky in the world 2013.

MOTELOBOS MEZCAL - An organic mezcal using agave Espadin. It's delightfully complex with powerful smokey notes produced by being roasted for 7 days in a volcanic stone pit.

AVIATION GIN - An American new age dry gin, moving away from being Juniper heavy. It has rich, floral and savoury notes of Lavender, cardamom and sarsaparilla.

COURVOISIER XO - Recognised as one of the finest XOs in the world. The perfect balance of intense flavours has been patiently evolved and nurtured for at least two decades.

BUMBU - Based on the original 16th century recipes used by West Indian sailors. Uses spices native to the Caribbean its extremely drinkable on its own with or without ice.

WARNER EDWARDS RUHBARB GIN - Bright rhubarb stalks upfront followed by classic gin notes. This is a crowd favourite for good reason. Pairs very well with Ginger Ale.

BLANTONS - Highly decorated and first single - barrel bourbon. The winner of a Gold medal at the International Wine and Spirits Competition every year from 1999 - 2004

CENTURY CLUB - Manhattan34 are recent members of the William Grant & Sons Century Club as a result of offering a very comprehensive range of Glenfiddich and Belvine Whiskey.
